This document consists of 2 printed pages, 2 blank pages and 1 Insert.

Answer one question from Section A and one question from Section B.

All questions carry equal marks.

You should write 600–900 words for each question.

Section A: Imaginative writing

- 1 Write the opening to a story called The Longest Day of My Life. In your writing, create a sense of mood and drama.
- 2 Write two contrasting pieces (300–450 words each), the first about a person living in the countryside, and the second about the same person living in a city a year later. In your writing, create a sense of atmosphere and place.
- 3 Write a descriptive piece about an airport. In your writing, create a sense of atmosphere, and focus on sounds and movements to help your reader imagine the scene.

Section B: Writing for an audience

- 4 In class, you have been discussing the pros and cons of being famous. Write an article for your school magazine called Fame – Is it worth it? In your writing, show your interest in this issue.
- 5 A new computer game has recently become available. Write two contrasting reviews (300–450 words each), which will be published on a technology website. One of the reviews praises the new computer game, and the other criticises it.
- 6 Your school is going to hold an evening for students and parents celebrating the creative and expressive arts. The evening will include a talk by a teacher about the many benefits of taking up a creative or expressive hobby. Write the text of the talk. In your writing, create a sense of passion and enthusiasm for creativity and/or expression.
