- 1 (a) Steve has just been appointed and designated by the Lord Chancellor as a court security officer. Part of his training was about the use of bags to transport bombs. Steve is on duty in his uniform when he sees Jessica in the court building coffee shop with a large bag which she keeps looking at nervously. Steve is suspicious and follows Jessica down a corridor leading to the ladies' lavatory. He asks to look in the bag but Jessica refuses and Steve takes the bag from her.

Explain how the Courts Act 2003 will apply to Steve. [10]

- (b) Fatima was appointed and designated by the Lord Chancellor as a court security officer 10 years ago. Gary is visiting the court building and he is wearing a coat with lots of pockets. Fatima is on duty in her uniform at the entrance and she asks Gary to take off his coat so she can search the pockets. Gary runs past Fatima into the court building. Fatima chases Gary and knocks him to the floor, breaking his arm.

Explain how the Courts Act 2003 will apply to Fatima. [10]

- (c) Jeff was appointed and designated by the Lord Chancellor as a court security officer a year ago. He is called to a courtroom where the judge complains that he has been threatened by Martha. Jeff grabs Martha, removes her from the courtroom and takes her to the court building entrance. Martha shouts: 'You can't do this to me! Who are you?' Jeff is wearing his uniform but has left his identity badge at home. He pushes Martha out of the court building.

Explain how the Courts Act 2003 will apply to Jeff. [10]

- (d) Describe the mode of trial process in relation to triable either way offences. Assess the advantages and disadvantages of this process. [20]

Courts Act 2003

Section 51 Court security officers

- (1) A court security officer is a person who is—
 - (a) appointed by the Lord Chancellor, and
 - (b) designated by the Lord Chancellor as a court security officer.
- (2) ...
- (3) For the purposes of this Part a court security officer who is not readily identifiable as such (whether by means of his uniform or badge or otherwise), is not to be regarded as acting in the execution of his duty.

52 Powers of search

- (1) A court security officer acting in the execution of his duty may search—
 - (a) any person who is in, or seeking to enter, a court building, and
 - (b) any article in the possession of such a person.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not authorise the officer to require a person to remove any of his clothing other than a coat, jacket, headgear, gloves or footwear.
- (3) In this Part “court building” means any building—
 - (a) where the business of any of the courts referred to in section 1 is carried on, and
 - (b) to which the public has access.

53 Powers to exclude, remove or restrain persons

- (1) A court security officer acting in the execution of his duty may exclude or remove from a court building, or a part of a court building, any person who refuses—
 - (a) to permit a search under section 52(1), or
 - (b) to surrender an article in his possession when asked to do so under section 54(1).
- (2) A court security officer acting in the execution of his duty may—
 - (a) restrain any person who is in a court building, or
 - (b) exclude or remove any person from a court building, or a part of a court building, if it is reasonably necessary to do so for one of the purposes given in subsection (3).
- (3) The purposes are—
 - (a) enabling court business to be carried on without interference or delay;
 - (b) maintaining order;
 - (c) securing the safety of any person in the court building.
- (4) A court security officer acting in the execution of his duty may remove any person from a courtroom at the request of a judge or a justice of the peace.
- (5) The powers conferred by subsections (1), (2) and (4) include power to use reasonable force, where necessary.

54 Surrender and seizure of articles

- (1) If a court security officer acting in the execution of his duty reasonably believes that an article in the possession of a person who is in, or seeking to enter, a court building ought to be surrendered on any of the grounds given in subsection (3), he must ask the person to surrender the article.
- (2) If the person refuses to surrender the article, the officer may seize it.
- (3) The grounds are that the article—
 - (a) may jeopardise the maintenance of order in the court building (or a part of it),
 - (b) may put the safety of any person in the court building at risk, or
 - (c) may be evidence of, or in relation to, an offence.

- 2 (a) Jack's company is in dispute with a company run by Tim. There is a written agreement to go to arbitration attached to the contract over which they are now in dispute. Jack and Tim signed the contract but not the agreement. The agreement says there should be one arbitrator. Jack sends Tim a letter suggesting Richard as the arbitrator but Tim does not respond.

Explain how the Arbitration Act 1996 will apply in the dispute between Jack and Tim. [10]

- (b) Danal and Franco each own a business. In a meeting by video conference, they agree to a panel of three arbitrators in the event of a dispute. Franco's secretary records this in writing at the meeting. Danal and Franco have a dispute but cannot agree how to pick the arbitration panel. Danal writes to Franco and asks him to choose an arbitrator. Franco sends Danal a name a week later and Danal sends a second name to Franco a week after that. The two arbitrators pick a third person and begin their arbitration.

Explain how the Arbitration Act 1996 will apply in the dispute between Danal and Franco. [10]

- (c) Marian and Nicola make a contract. They agree by telephone to choose one arbitrator each if they have a dispute. Marian tells Nicola that she has made a written note of the conversation. A year later there is a dispute. Nicola writes to Marian naming Desmond as her chosen arbitrator. Marian writes back five days later refusing Desmond. Marian does not suggest an alternative. Nicola writes to Marian saying she is going to appoint Desmond as sole arbitrator. Marian writes to Nicola saying she has applied to the court to have Desmond's appointment set aside.

Explain how the Arbitration Act 1996 will apply in the dispute between Marian and Nicola. [10]

- (d) Describe the forms of alternative dispute resolution other than arbitration. Assess the advantages and disadvantages of such methods as a means of resolving civil disputes. [20]

Section 5 Agreements to be in writing.

- (1) The provisions of this Part apply only where the arbitration agreement is in writing, and any other agreement between the parties as to any matter is effective for the purposes of this Part only if in writing.
The expressions “agreement”, “agree” and “agreed” shall be construed accordingly.
- (2) There is an agreement in writing—
 - (a) if the agreement is made in writing (whether or not it is signed by the parties),
 - (b) if the agreement is made by exchange of communications in writing, or
 - (c) if the agreement is evidenced in writing.
- (3) Where parties agree otherwise than in writing by reference to terms which are in writing, they make an agreement in writing.
- (4) An agreement is evidenced in writing if an agreement made otherwise than in writing is recorded by one of the parties, or by a third party, with the authority of the parties to the agreement.
- (5)

Section 16 Procedure for appointment of arbitrators.

- (1) The parties are free to agree on the procedure for appointing the arbitrator or arbitrators, including the procedure for appointing any chairman or umpire.
- (2) If or to the extent that there is no such agreement, the following provisions apply.
- (3) If the tribunal is to consist of a sole arbitrator, the parties shall jointly appoint the arbitrator not later than 28 days after service of a request in writing by either party to do so.
- (4) If the tribunal is to consist of two arbitrators, each party shall appoint one arbitrator not later than 14 days after service of a request in writing by either party to do so.
- (5) If the tribunal is to consist of three arbitrators—
 - (a) each party shall appoint one arbitrator not later than 14 days after service of a request in writing by either party to do so, and
 - (b) the two so appointed shall forthwith appoint a third arbitrator as the chairman of the tribunal.
- (6) ...

Section 17 Power in case of default to appoint sole arbitrator.

- (1) Unless the parties otherwise agree, where each of two parties to an arbitration agreement is to appoint an arbitrator and one party (“the party in default”) refuses to do so, or fails to do so within the time specified, the other party, having duly appointed his arbitrator, may give notice in writing to the party in default that he proposes to appoint his arbitrator to act as sole arbitrator.
- (2) If the party in default does not within 7 clear days of that notice being given—
 - (a) make the required appointment, and
 - (b) notify the other party that he has done so,
 the other party may appoint his arbitrator as sole arbitrator whose award shall be binding on both parties as if he had been so appointed by agreement.
- (3) Where a sole arbitrator has been appointed under subsection (2), the party in default may (upon notice to the appointing party) apply to the court which may set aside the appointment.
