- 1 (a) Anwar is in a lot of debt and he asks his wealthy employer, Karinna, for a loan but she refuses to help him. That night, when Karinna has left the office where she and Anwar work he sees a diamond ring on her desk. He steals the ring and takes it to a shop where it is valued at £120 000. Anwar sells the ring and clears his debts. The ring was all Karinna had to remind her of her mother, who died when she was a child. Anwar is convicted of theft.

Explain how the Sentencing Council Guidelines will apply to Anwar. [10]

- (b) Femi is targeted by a local street gang and told to pay them £500 or he will be beaten up. Femi is scared and as he is walking home he sees Sam on his mobile phone. Femi runs up to Sam and steals his mobile phone. Femi sells the phone but it is only worth £200. Sam needed to use his phone for important business calls and he now feels scared when walking in open spaces.

Explain how the Sentencing Council Guidelines will apply to Femi. [10]

- (c) Carly is part of a group who decide to steal a prize winning dog. The dog belongs to Paul, who lives alone since his wife died a year ago. They make a plan that Carly will invite Paul round to her house for tea whilst others in the group steal the dog from Paul's house. The plan succeeds and the dog is sold for £1500. Paul is so upset that he has to have a week off work as the dog was a birthday gift from his wife. Carly and the others in the group are all convicted of theft.

Explain how the Sentencing Council Guidelines will apply to Carly. [10]

- (d) Describe the aims of sentencing used for adult offenders. Assess the extent to which these aims are effective in preventing re-offending. [20]

- 2 (a) Khalid, aged 21, applies to join the police force after university. He came to the UK 10 years ago with his family and is allowed to remain indefinitely. He passes the physical and written tests with high marks, although he only just passes the numeracy test, and has two good references from his university tutors. Khalid does not put a caution for theft three years ago on his application form. Several months later Khalid receives a short letter telling him his application was successful.

Explain how the Police Regulations 2003 will apply to Khalid. [10]

- (b) Stephanie Walker, aged 30 and a British citizen, is appointed as a police officer in London. She has just completed two years in the armed forces, where she was awarded a certificate of good conduct. She meets all the other qualifications for employment. The chief officer for London has set a probationary period of one year for anyone who joins the force and Police Constable (PC) Walker is a popular and committed officer. On the last day of her probationary period, PC Walker is arresting a suspect who produces a knife and she has a severe anxiety attack.

Explain how the Police Regulations 2003 will apply to PC Walker. [10]

- (c) Troy, aged 19, applies to be a police officer. He buys extra strong contact lenses so he can pass the eyesight test and when asked he says he does not wear contact lenses. Troy has one good reference but his other referee notes that Troy has been involved in several fights. Within a month of starting the six month probationary period set by the Secretary of State Troy fails to identify a suspect's car because he is not wearing his contact lenses and cannot read the number plate. No other officer will work with him as he is very aggressive when under pressure.

Explain how the Police Regulations 2003 will apply to Troy. [10]

- (d) Describe the parliamentary and judicial controls of delegated legislation. Assess the effectiveness of delegated legislation as a method of law making. [20]
