READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

If you have been given an Answer Booklet, follow the instructions on the front cover of the Booklet.

Write your Centre number, candidate number and name on all the work you hand in.

Write in dark blue or black pen.

Do not use staples, paper clips, highlighters, glue or correction fluid.

There are three sections in this paper: Section A, Section B and Section C. Choose two of these sections and answer one question from each of the sections you have chosen.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 2 printed pages.

Answer two questions, each from a different section.

Section A

- 1 'Functionalist theories underestimate the amount of conflict in modern industrial societies.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 2 'Sociologists should use their research to help disadvantaged groups in society.' Explain and assess this view. [25]

Section B

- 3 'The extent to which official statistics provide an objective account of social reality has been exaggerated.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 4 'Qualitative research methods allow too much scope for the sociologist to influence the research findings.' Explain and assess this view. [25]

Section C

- 5 'Defining social class only in terms of property ownership fails to reflect the complex nature of class relationships today.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 6 'People in poverty could easily attain a higher standard of living if they had the right attitude and determination.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
