Paper 1 Themes and Concepts

May/June 2024MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 100

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2024 series for most Cambridge IGCSE, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 16 printed pages.

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptions for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

Social Science-Specific Marking Principles (for point-based marking)*1 Components using point-based marking:

- Point marking is often used to reward knowledge, understanding and application of skills. We give credit where the candidate's answer shows relevant knowledge, understanding and application of skills in answering the question. We do not give credit where the answer shows confusion.

From this it follows that we:

- a DO credit answers which are worded differently from the mark scheme if they clearly convey the same meaning (unless the mark scheme requires a specific term)
- b DO credit alternative answers/examples which are not written in the mark scheme if they are correct
- c DO credit answers where candidates give more than one correct answer in one prompt/numbered/scaffolded space where extended writing is required rather than list-type answers. For example, questions that require n reasons (e.g. State two reasons ...).
- d DO NOT credit answers simply for using a 'key term' unless that is all that is required. (Check for evidence it is understood and not used wrongly.)
- e DO NOT credit answers which are obviously self-contradicting or trying to cover all possibilities
- f DO NOT give further credit for what is effectively repetition of a correct point already credited unless the language itself is being tested. This applies equally to 'mirror statements' (i.e. polluted/not polluted).
- g DO NOT require spellings to be correct, unless this is part of the test. However spellings of syllabus terms must allow for clear and unambiguous separation from other syllabus terms with which they may be confused (e.g. Corrasion/Corrosion)

2 Presentation of mark scheme:

- Slashes (/) or the word 'or' separate alternative ways of making the same point.
- Semi colons (;) bullet points (•) or figures in brackets (1) separate different points.
- Content in the answer column in brackets is for examiner information/context to clarify the marking but is not required to earn the mark (except Accounting syllabuses where they indicate negative numbers).

3 Calculation questions:

- The mark scheme will show the steps in the most likely correct method(s), the mark for each step, the correct answer(s) and the mark for each answer
- If working/explanation is considered essential for full credit, this will be indicated in the question paper and in the mark scheme. In all other instances, the correct answer to a calculation should be given full credit, even if no supporting working is shown.
- Where the candidate uses a valid method which is not covered by the mark scheme, award equivalent marks for reaching equivalent stages.
- Where an answer makes use of a candidate's own incorrect figure from previous working, the 'own figure rule' applies: full marks will be given if a correct and complete method is used. Further guidance will be included in the mark scheme where necessary and any exceptions to this general principle will be noted.

4 Annotation:

- For point marking, ticks can be used to indicate correct answers and crosses can be used to indicate wrong answers. There is no direct relationship between ticks and marks. Ticks have no defined meaning for levels of response marking.
- For levels of response marking, the level awarded should be annotated on the script.
- Other annotations will be used by examiners as agreed during standardisation, and the meaning will be understood by all examiners who marked that paper.

Assessment objectivesAO1 Knowledge and understanding

Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of facts, terms and concepts of travel and tourism.

AO2 Application

AO3 Analysis

Analyse travel and tourism issues, showing an understanding of the possible impacts of those issues on travel and tourism, and use appropriate research techniques.

AO4 Evaluation

Evaluate information to develop arguments, understand implications, draw inferences and make judgements, recommendations and decisions.

2(d)	Discuss the impacts of a tourism organisation giving good customer service. Use Table C to mark candidate responses to this question. AO1 – out of 3 marks AO3 – out of 3 marks AO4 – out of 3 marks Indicative content: AO1 Knowledge <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Customers are happy and will leave good reviews on surveys or on social media. Praise will mean that the staff are happy. Staff will stay and turnover will reduce. Greater levels of satisfaction in customers means that visitor numbers will be high. AO3 Analysis <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Social media posts are found which can be accessed by others, read and if positive may increase business as more customers will return. Happy staff providing good customer service means returning customers as people feel happy and that they are getting value for money. Large numbers of customers brought in by good customer service will allow staff to be well paid and so be happy providing good levels of service for the guests who will give good reports. AO4 Evaluation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> It would be expected to have some sort of overall comments found about the positive nature to organisations of good customer service with some form of justification such as higher profits highlighted and the value of this to the employees. Higher profits which may mean wage increases or bonuses, increased investment in the business. Good publicity from satisfied customers. Low staff turnover because staff are happy in their work environment. Accept any other reasonable response.	9

(1) • Can cause inequalities in development and incomes within the country (1) as tourism areas may grow and other areas may suffer economically and socially. (1) Accept any other reasonable response.	6
3(c)	Explain two positive environmental impacts of tourism on destinations. Award one mark for the impact identified and up to two further marks for the accompanying explanation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awareness of the environment (1) by visitors mean they will be less likely to pollute it/cause lasting damage (1) tourists are more likely to post pictures and advertise which would highlight good practice. (1) • Money is brought into destinations (1) this is available for conservation purposes (1) which will highlight the area and bring more business. (1) • Training (1) will be provided for locals who will see potential benefits (1) and will therefore look after and maintain environments in a sustainable manner. (1) Accept any other reasonable response.	6

Question	Answer	Marks
3(d)	Discuss how responsible tourism behaviour can be encouraged Use Table C to mark candidate responses to this question. AO1 – out of 3 marks AO3 – out of 3 marks AO4 – out of 3 marks Indicative content: AO1 Knowledge <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Responsible tourism is about "making better places for people to live in and better places for people to visit." Responsible tourism requires that operators, hoteliers, governments, local people and tourists take action to make tourism more sustainable. It can be encouraged through organisations working with local communities to show them the benefits to their lives now and in the future. They would be shown that it will generate greater economic benefits for local people and enhances the well-being of host communities, improving working conditions. AO3 Analysis <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Involving local people in decisions that affect their lives and life changes will help them and organisations and tourists to make positive contributions to the conservation of natural and cultural heritage. If it provides more enjoyable experiences for tourists through more meaningful connections with local people, and a greater understanding of local cultural, social and environmental issues then businesses will make more money and local areas/communities will benefit. AO4 Evaluation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Responses would be expected to contain some reference/comments about the fact that there are some successful attempts being made to implement responsible tourism methods in order to achieve full marks. Examples may be expected to support comments made, such as tour operators will include guides within their brochures or on their websites showing ways that tourists can be responsible e.g. Using local guides/ public transport within destination rather than hire cars/use of trains for transfers or maybe for travel to destinations. 	9
