Tourist Information about Martinique

If you like the idea of palm trees perched on a volcano then Martinique is the holiday destination for you!

Martinique is a French island in the Caribbean filled with flora and fauna, ruins and monuments. It has long been a destination for holidaymakers from Europe although these days they are supplemented by holidaymakers from the USA and Canada too. It offers beautiful beaches and great food with a number of all-inclusive resorts.

Visitors can also explore Martinique's rich history and cultural heritage through a network of museums found throughout the island and a more recent installation of artistic totem poles in the city of Saint-Pierre.

There are magnificent protected hiking trails, intriguing mangrove tours, and canyoning adventures; world-famous surfing, stand-up paddle boarding, bill fishing, and every other conceivable water sport or just relaxing on the beach...

Martinique is truly one place that has it all!
