The Philippines is a Pacific island country in Asia. Tourism is an important sector in the economy of the Philippines. The main tourist attraction is the biodiversity of the islands. There is a rich cultural and historic heritage.

The Philippines is not as popular with tourists as other Asian countries such as Vietnam, Cambodia, Thailand and Singapore. This may be due to political and social issues, such as social unrest and poverty.

In 2015 there were 5 million people employed in the Philippines' tourism sector. There were 5.4 million visitors in 2015 increasing to 8.3 million by 2019 after a successful tourism campaign. Tourist numbers are continuing to increase as the industry recovers from the pandemic.
