
LAW

9084/42

Paper 4

October/November 2018

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 75

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2018 series for most Cambridge IGCSE™, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 10 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do marks are not deducted for errors marks are not deducted for omissions answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

Assessment Objectives

Candidates are expected to demonstrate:

Knowledge and understanding

An ability to recall, select, use and develop knowledge and understanding of legal principles and rules by means of example and citation

Analysis, evaluation and application

An ability to analyse and evaluate legal materials, situations and issues and accurately apply appropriate principles and rules

Communication and presentation

Use appropriate legal terminology to present logical and coherent argument and to communicate relevant material in a clear and concise manner.

The relationship between the Assessment Objectives and this individual component is detailed below. The objectives are weighted to give an indication of their relative importance, rather than to provide a precise statement of the percentage mark allocation to particular assessment objectives, but indicative marks per question attempted on Paper 3 are shown in brackets.

Assessment Objective	Paper 1	Paper 2	Paper 3	Paper 4	Advanced Level
Knowledge/ Understanding	50	30	50	50 (13)	50
Analysis/ Evaluation/ Application	40	60	40	40 (10)	40
Communication/ Presentation	10	10	10	10 (2)	10

The mark bands and descriptors applicable to all questions on the paper are as follows.

Band 1[0 marks]

The answer contains no relevant material.

Band 2[1–6 marks]

The candidate introduces fragments of information or unexplained examples from which no coherent explanation or analysis can emerge.

OR

The candidate attempts to introduce an explanation and/or analysis but it is so fundamentally undermined by error and confusion that it remains substantially incoherent.

Band 3[7–12 marks]

The candidate begins to indicate some capacity for explanation and analysis by introducing some of the issues, but explanations are limited and superficial

OR

The candidate adopts an approach in which there is concentration on explanation in terms of facts presented rather than through the development and explanation of legal principles and rules

OR

The candidate attempts to introduce material across the range of potential content, but it is weak or confused so that no real explanation or conclusion emerges.

Band 4[13–19 marks]

Where there is more than one issue, the candidate demonstrates a clear understanding of one of the main issues of the question, giving explanations and using illustrations so that a full and detailed picture is presented of this issue

OR

The candidate presents a more limited explanation of all parts of the answer, but there is some lack of detail or superficiality in respect of either or both so that the answer is not fully rounded.

Band 5[20–25 marks]

The candidate presents a detailed explanation and discussion of all areas of relevant law and, while there may be some minor inaccuracies and/or imbalance, a coherent explanation emerges.

Question	Answer	Marks
1	Compare and contrast the defences of volenti non fit injuria (consent) and contributory negligence. This question concerns the defences of volenti and contributory negligence. Candidates should explain each defence accurately and with reference to appropriate case law. Volenti A full defence A voluntary assumption of risk by the plaintiff Knowledge and understanding of the risk Examples – sport, employment, medical treatment Contributory Negligence A partial defence under the Law Reform (Contributory Negligence) Act 1945 Damages reduced in proportion to claimants contribution Examples – driving cases, smoking related illness Candidates should present an accurate explanation of the legal rules with reference to relevant authority. Candidates should then address the question by comparing the two defences – is there an overlap between the two. What are the significant differences Contributory negligence indicates that the claimant was at fault Volenti does not indicate fault on the part of the claimant but rather that they understood and consented to the risk Contributory negligence is a partial defence while volenti is a full defence Any other relevant comparisons may be credited Critical analysis is required to achieve the higher mark bands. Explanation only will be confined to lower Band 4.	25

Question	Answer	Marks
2	Explain and critically analyse each element of the Rule in Rylands v Fletcher. This question requires candidates to examine the tort of Rylands v Fletcher. Candidates should accurately explain each of the essential elements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bringing something on to the land An accumulation Non-natural use Escape Damage Each element should be explained with reference to relevant case law. Then candidates should engage in a critical analysis of the elements – possible issues include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The meaning of non-natural use The meaning of escape Whether harm must be foreseen The types of damage which is recoverable Any other relevant point Critical analysis is required to achieve the higher mark bands. Explanation only will be confined to lower Band 4.	25

Question	Answer	Marks
3	Explain and evaluate the rules governing recovery for nervous shock in negligence. This question concerns the special rules which apply to the recovery of nervous shock in negligence Candidates may outline the main elements of the tort of negligence – duty of care, breach of duty and damage. However a detailed account of all the elements is not required as the question is quite specifically asking about nervous shock and this should be the main focus of the candidates' response. Candidates should examine the development of the rules through a discussion of the case law – for example Dulieu v White, Attia v British Gas, McLoughlin v O'Brien, Alcock v Chief Constable of South Yorkshire Issues which could be critically evaluate include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Meaning of nervous shock Distinction between primary and secondary victims The factors set out in Alcock Broader policy issues For each of these issues candidates should provide an explanation of the legal rules supported with reference to relevant case law. Candidates should also examine each of these factors from a critical perspective, considering whether the law relating to nervous shock operates effectively. Evaluation is required to achieve the higher mark bands. Explanation only will be confined to lower Band 4.	25

Question	Answer	Marks
4	Advise the parties as to their rights and responsibilities under occupiers' liability. The focus of this question Occupiers' Liability and in particular the occupier's potential liability towards lawful visitors. Candidates should explain the relevant elements of the Occupiers' Liability Act 1957 – for example <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Definitions – occupier, premises, visitor The common duty of care Liability for a person carrying out a trade Liability for the torts of an independent contractor Possible defences Reference should be made to relevant case law when explaining the legal rules. Candidates should then apply the legal rules to the facts and consider the following <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Status of the potential claimants – are they visitors? Should Harry be responsible for his own safety Can William avoid liability on the basis that Harry is responsible for the fire An alternative approach based on Negligence should be credited. Candidates should explain each of the elements of Negligence and apply the legal rules to the facts of the scenario. Candidates must explain the law and in order achieve the higher bands candidates must also apply the law in a logical fashion to the facts and reach a coherent conclusion.	25

Question	Answer	Marks
5	Advise Andrew as to his rights and any potential remedies in this situation. The focus of this question is negligence. In particular candidates should examine the issues of breach of duty, damage and medical negligence. Candidates should outline the essential elements of negligence – duty of care, breach of duty and damage (causation and remoteness). However a detailed account of all three is not required – candidates should instead focus on those elements which are most relevant to the facts of the scenario such as Has XYZ breached the duty of care? Was there a high probability of harm? Causation – did XYZ cause the initial injury? Is there contributory negligence on the part of Andrew? Has the doctor breached the duty of care? Do the actions of the doctor break the chain of causation between XYZ and Andrew? Candidates should present an accurate explanation the relevant legal rules and use relevant case law to support the explanation of the law. An alternative approach based on the Occupiers' Liability Act 1957 may be awarded some credit although the issue of the whether the initial injury (in the cinema) arose from the state of the premises would need to be examined here. Some credit may also be awarded for discussion of vicarious liability. Candidates must explain the law and in order achieve the higher bands candidates must also apply the law in a logical fashion to the facts and reach a coherent conclusion.	25

Question	Answer	Marks
6	Advise the parties as to their potential liability in this scenario. This question relates to trespass to the person and requires a discussion of assault, battery and false imprisonment. Candidates should introduce the tort of trespass to the person and explain the essential elements of each of the three categories – assault, battery and false imprisonment. Candidates should also examine possible defences such as volenti in the context of sporting activities and lawful detention in relation to false imprisonment. The explanation of the legal rules should be accurate and supported with reference to relevant case law. Candidates should then apply the law to each of the incidents in the scenario The hard tackle by Dimitri on Ed – a battery? Covered by consent? Possible claim in negligence? The threat by Ed when he is held back by his team-mates – an assault? The injuries inflicted by Frank on Dimitri – a battery? Frank is prevented from leaving the dressing room – false imprisonment or lawful detention? Candidates must explain the law and in order achieve the higher bands candidates must also apply the law in a logical fashion to the facts and reach a coherent conclusion.	25