Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This syllabus is approved for use in England, Wales and Northern Ireland as a Cambridge International Level 1/Level 2 Certificate.

Question	Answer	Marks
Assessment Objectives 1 and 2
Level 5		[33–40]
Candidates: Select and deploy a range of relevant and accurate contextual knowledge to effectively support their answers. Select, organise and deploy effectively and relevantly a wide range of information to support their conclusions. Demonstrate a good understanding of the key features, reasons, results and changes of societies, events, people and situations relevant to the question. They demonstrate an awareness of the importance of the broad context and of interrelationships of the issues of the question. Produce well developed, well reasoned and well supported conclusions. Write with precision and succinctness, showing structure, balance and focus.
Level 4		[25–32]
Candidates: Deploy mostly relevant and accurate contextual knowledge to support parts of their answers. Select a range of relevant information which is generally well organised and deployed appropriately. Demonstrate a reasonable understanding of the significance of the key features, reasons, results and changes of societies, events, people and situations relevant to the question with awareness of the broad context. They have some understanding of interrelationships of the issues in the question. Can produce developed, reasoned and supported conclusions. Write with precision and succinctness, showing structure, balance and focus.
Level 3		[17–24]
Candidates: Demonstrate and select some relevant contextual knowledge and deploy it appropriately to support parts of their answers. Select and organise mostly relevant information, much of it deployed appropriately with a structured approach, either chronological or thematic. Demonstrate some understanding of the key features, reasons, results and changes of the societies, events, people and situations relevant to the question with some awareness of the broad context. Produce structured descriptions and explanations. Support conclusions, although they are not always well substantiated. Write with some precision and succinctness.

Question	Answer	Marks
Level 2	Candidates: Demonstrate some, but limited contextual knowledge.            Select and organise some relevant information. This is only deployed relevantly on a few occasions.            Identify and describe key features, reasons, results and changes of the societies, events, people and situations relevant to the question, but with little awareness of the broad context. There is some structure in the descriptions.            Attempt conclusions but these are asserted, undeveloped and unsupported.            Present work that lacks precision and succinctness.            Present a recognisable essay structure, but the question is only partially addressed.	[9–16]
Level 1	Candidates: Demonstrate little relevant contextual knowledge.            Demonstrate limited ability to select and organise information.            Describe a few key features, reasons, results and changes of societies, events, people and situations relevant to the question. The work contains some relevant material but this is not deployed appropriately, and there are no effective links or comparisons.            Write relatively little or it is of some length but the content is not focused on the task.            Answer showing little understanding of the question.	[1–8]

Information Suggestions

The information listed below attempts to indicate some of the detail and issues that candidates may wish to address in their answers. This list does not claim to be exclusive or exhaustive. Marks should be awarded on the quality of detail used and quality of argument deployed as defined in the generic mark scheme.

Question	Answer	Marks
1	How significant were changes made to the Schlieffen Plan as a cause of the plan's failure? Explain your answer. Yes Helmuth von Moltke changed the plan so Germany would walk through Belgium rather than through Holland – led to fierce resistance by Belgium, slowing German advance; led to BEF joining war to protect 'Brave Little Belgium'; Moltke also committed fewer troops to Russian front – Russia mobilised in 10 days rather than 6 weeks as planned – meant German forces on the Western Front had to be redeployed East and damaged chances of success in the West against Allies, etc. No Original Schlieffen Plan from 1905 already flawed – out of date tactics; no account taken of impact of new weapons such as accurate artillery and machine guns; underestimated speed of French and Russian mobilisation; did not take account of the fact that German soldiers would be conscripts rather than professional soldiers; more significant was the development of trench warfare after the Battle of the Marne; entering of Britain into the war, etc.	40
