This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2021 series for most Cambridge IGCSE™, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 14 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

	Why did Mazzini write this letter at this time? Explain your answer using details of the source and your knowledge.
	Level 6 Mazzini's state of mind in specific content, e.g. Explains Mazzini's frustration at the resurgence of the Austrians
	Level 5 State of mind with general context
	Level 4 Specific context Context: Mazzini arrived in Milan in April where the population had risen up and expelled the Austrians. He then left (because of lack of support for a Republic) and joined Garibaldi. Charles Albert tried to exploit the situation in Milan to lead an anti-Austrian war. It was a disaster with many nationalists highly suspicious of his motives. In Rome in November liberals demonstrated for reforms and a declaration of war against the Austrians, and the Pope fled on 24 November. On 29 a Constitutional Assembly was formed. Mazzini didn't reach Rome until February when the Republic was declared.

	Level 6 Uses contextual knowledge or cross reference to explain reasons for not being surprised by Pope's overall attitude
	Level 5 Uses contextual knowledge or cross reference to explain reasons for being surprised by Pope's overall attitude.
	Context: Pope Pius was initially seen as a reformer and introduced some reforms after his election in 1846 but then turned against the liberals and nationalists and in 1848 refused to support the war against Austria. He was forced to flee Rome. In 1860 the papal army was defeated by Victor Emmanuel who took most of the Papal territories except the central part of the Papal States with Rome. In November 1860 Garibaldi and Victor Emmanuel rode together and victorious into Naples. Garibaldi had already proclaimed Victor as King of Italy.

	Option B: Twentieth Century Topic
1	Study Sources A and B.	7
	How far do these two sources agree? Explain your answer using details of the sources.
	Level 4 Agreement and disagreement of detail or sub-messages
	Level 3 Agreement or disagreement of detail or sub-messages
	Agreements: Germany did not like the Treaty. The British thought it was too harsh/British were sympathetic towards Germany. Germany came out of it stronger. Germany lost territory. It was not the terms that were the real problem. The Treaty was not too harsh/it was fair/Germany was not harmed.
	Disagreements: Source A claims Germany was made stronger by splintering of the Austrian and Russian empires, but Source B says it was made stronger by the creation of Poland. Source A claims it had flaws, but Source B implies it was as good as could be achieved. In Source A the real problem for Germany was the atmosphere in which the Treaty was presented while in Source B the real problem for Germany was the defeat. In Source A the Treaty doesn't last because it contained contradictions/was too harsh for the British, while in Source B it was because of European statesmen. In Source A the treaties are to blame for no lasting settlement (because of contradictions), in Source B they cannot be blamed for no lasting peace.
	Level 2 Identifies information that is in one source but not in the other or states that the sources are about the same subject OR Compares the provenance of the sources
	Level 1 Writes about the sources but makes no valid comparison
	Level 0 No evidence submitted, or response does not address the question

	Level 1 Identifies something in E that is surprising – no valid explanation
	Level 0 No evidence submitted, or response does not address the question, i.e. does not address surprise.

4	Study Source F.	8
	Why did Lloyd George make this speech at this time? Explain your answer using details of the source and your knowledge.
	Level 6 Explains purpose in context
	Context: The Treaty was signed in June 1919 so Lloyd George is trying to persuade Parliament to support it. In the general election of December 1918 he had promised to make Germany pay but by the summer of 1919 Lloyd George was worried the Treaty was too harsh. However, he still had to sell the Treaty to MPs and the public, many of whom had wanted Germany harshly punished (they wanted Germany 'to pay').
	Level 5 Explains the purpose of the speech (must have intended impact on behaviour of audience), e.g. to persuade Parliament to support the Treaty.
	Level 4 Explains the big message – the Treaty is a good one because it has properly punished Germany
	Level 3 Explains context only – fails to explain message or purpose of the source OR Explains a valid sub-message
	Level 2 Interprets the source, e.g. he is telling them how good the Treaty is OR Describes the context – but not used as a reason for the speech
	Level 1 Surface descriptions of the source, e.g. he made this speech to tell people that they have established guarantees
	Level 0 No evidence submitted, or response does not address the question

	How useful would this cartoon be to a historian studying the peace treaties? Explain your answer using details of the source and your knowledge.

	Level 6 Contextual evaluation – uses contextual knowledge/cross reference to question whether Germany was really punished harshly, OR to confirm that German was punished harshly
	Level 5 Answers based on big message – the source is useful because it tells us that Germany was punished harshly and its allies were also going to be punished harshly Level 4 Answers based on sub-messages (inferences), e.g. Germany was punished before Austria-Hungary, Germany was punished harshly, Turkey was worried about the peace treaties.
	Level 3 Explains what the source does not tell us – must be specific knowledge about what is missing OR Rejects the source because it is British/it is biased/it is just a cartoon or asserts it is useful for British point of view.
	Level 2 Uses source for surface information, e.g. All three countries wore hats to the dentist
	Level 1 Unsupported assertions/misinterpretations/undeveloped use of provenance
	Level 0 No evidence submitted, or response does not address the question, e.g. fails to address 'useful'
