March 2021

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 60

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the March 2021 series for most Cambridge IGCSE™, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 92 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONSApplying the Mark Scheme

- When marking a response the overall criteria to be considered should be – ‘How good is this response to this question?’
- The ‘Level Descriptor’ should be used to decide the Level into which the quality of the answer fits.
- Exhaustive lists of possible facts are not given in the mark scheme, as there is often a choice of factual knowledge that candidates may use.
- WHERE EXAMPLES OF RESPONSES ARE GIVEN, THESE ARE NOT PRESCRIPTIVE, BUT ARE INTENDED AS A GUIDE. It is not possible to cover every possible type of response within a levels of response mark scheme and examiners are expected to use their professional judgement at all times in ensuring that responses are placed in the correct levels and given an appropriate mark within that level. If you cannot resolve the issue please contact your team leader.
- Marking must be positive. Marks must not be deducted for inaccurate or irrelevant parts of answers. In itself, poor use of historical terminology, spelling, grammar or handwriting does not affect the mark. The overall quality of the answer to the question should be judged.
- If a candidate reaches a particular level s/he must be rewarded with a mark within that level. It is not necessary to work through the levels.
- The full range of marks should be used. Do not be afraid to award full marks or no marks. Failure to do this will seriously affect the distribution of marks. Be prepared to reward candidates who show any level of understanding. The mark scheme starts from basic acceptable response. Ensure that the candidate has received marks for the questions they have answered and that these marks are recorded against the correct question.

Assessment Objectives

- (a) recall, description
- (b) recall, explanation
- (c) recall, explanation and analysis

1(a)	What were the March Laws passed in Hungary in 1848?	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘They were passed by the Hungarian Diet.’ ‘They set up the national guard.’ ‘They announced the election of a Hungarian national assembly.’ ‘They tried to set up a Hungarian nation state.’ ‘They modernised Hungary.’ ‘They got rid of serfdom.’ ‘They announced the freedom of the press.’ ‘They were designed to turn Hungary into a parliamentary democracy.’ ‘They gave Hungary control of its national guard and foreign policy.’ ‘They were designed to turn feudal Hungary into a constitutional monarchy.’ ‘They led to the Hungarian war of independence.’

Question	Answer	Marks
1(b)	Why were the reform banquets in 1847–48 important in France?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘They were important because they were the only way that Louis Philippe’s regime could be criticised because political meetings and opposition was banned. The holding of these banquets was a way of getting around these bans and allowing popular criticism of the regime. The middle classes paid to attend a banquet and then speeches to demand reforms were made. Without these banquets it would have been hard to demand reforms and criticise the regime.’		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘They were the only way to express criticism of the regime.’ ‘They were important because their banning in February 1848 led to a popular revolution.’ ‘They allowed the middle classes to demand reforms.’ ‘They were important because they were popular and lots of people attended them.’		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘Many reform banquets were held at this time.’		1

1(c)	How far was the revolution of 1848 in France a failure? Explain your answer. Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8. Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The revolution was a complete failure. The demonstrators in February had wanted real reforms but the government that came into power was too conservative for them and unemployment was growing fast. This led to the uprising in Paris in June which was put down by the French army. This meant the revolution was over. In the elections of December Louis Napoleon won with the support of monarchists. Later he dissolved the National Assembly, made himself Emperor Napoleon III and ended the Second Republic. This showed that the revolution was a complete failure.’ OR e.g. ‘The revolution was not a failure. In the short term, it actually achieved quite a lot. First it got rid of Louis Philippe and his chief minister Guizot, both of whom were very unpopular. The Second Republic was set up and all men were given the vote and elections were held. National workshops were set up to tackle the problem of unemployment. Although much of this was swept away by conservatives and later by Napoleon, votes for all men survived and so in the long term there was some success.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

Question	Answer	Marks
1(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. 'Cavaignac and the French army suppressed the June Days and this meant the revolution had failed.' 'The revolution failed when the National Workshops were closed in June 1848.' 'The revolution failed when Louis Napoleon was elected and began to return France back to the old order.' 'The revolution did get rid of Louis Philippe.' 'The revolution did lead to an extension of the franchise.'	2–3

2(a)	Describe how the unification of Italy was completed in 1870–71.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘When the Franco-Prussian War started in 1870, the French withdrew from Rome.’ ‘There were public demonstrations in support of the Italian government taking Rome.’ ‘The Pope refused to allow the Italian army to enter Rome.’ ‘The Italian army laid siege to Rome.’ ‘The Italian army easily broke into Rome in September.’ ‘There was a plebiscite and Rome became part of Italy.’ ‘The Pope declared he was a prisoner in the Vatican.’ ‘In July 1871, the capital of Italy was moved from Florence to Rome.’

Question	Answer	Marks
2(b)	Why was Austria able to maintain its position in Italy in 1848–49?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘I think the Austrians were able to keep their position in Italy because the Italians were divided. After the Austrians were driven out of Milan, the Italians did not stay united. In April 1848, the Pope withdrew his troops from the front. Later Naples and Tuscany also recalled their troops leaving Piedmont and Lombardy to fight the Austrians alone. This weakened them and explains why the Austrians were able to recover.’		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘Even after he had been forced to leave Milan, Radetsky managed to reorganise his troops.’ ‘The Italians were divided with the Pope withdrawing his troops.’ ‘This was because King Ferdinand withdrew his troops.’ ‘Charles Albert was defeated at the battle of Novara.’ ‘King Ferdinand withdrew his troops from the Italian struggle against the Austrians.’ ‘The Austrians had far greater resources.’ ‘The leadership of Radetsky in reorganising the Austrian troops was an important factor.’ ‘The Austrians were able to retreat into the Quadrilateral fortresses.’ ‘The Austrians sent 20 000 troops to reinforce Radetsky’s forces.’		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘This was because it was strong and could defend itself.’		1

2(c)	‘Garibaldi was the crucial factor in the creation of the Kingdom of Italy in 1861.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Garibaldi was crucial in the creation of the Kingdom of Italy. His military leadership was what mattered and his most important contribution was when he sailed to Sicily and led an uprising that overthrew the control of Naples. He then crossed back to the mainland and conquered Naples. He then handed over all his conquests to Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy. This virtually handed over to Victor Emmanuel southern Italy and led to the creation of the Kingdom of Italy in March 1861. This shows his importance to the creation of the kingdom.’ OR ‘I am not sure about this. I think there were other factors, especially the role of Cavour. His contribution was just as important as Garibaldi’s. As Prime Minister of Piedmont he took the country into the Crimean War, hoping that this would win him international support for extending Piedmont’s power in Italy. He got this from France and this led to the Second Italian War of Independence when Piedmont took over Lombardy. He later annexed Tuscany and was clever in invading Papal regions and thus stopping Garibaldi from doing it. He was then able to join up Piedmont’s gains with those of Garibaldi and the Kingdom of Italy was created. The fact that he was appointed the first Prime Minister of Italy shows his importance.’

Question	Answer	Marks
2(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Garibaldi overthrew the Bourbon Kingdom of the Two Sicilies. This was an important step towards the Kingdom of Italy.’ ‘It was the ideas of Mazzini that were the crucial factor.’ ‘Through Young Italy, Mazzini got young men to support the cause of unification.’ ‘The support of Napoleon of France was important.’ ‘Cavour was crucial. He used the power of Piedmont to unify the north of Italy.’	2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘Garibaldi was very important and the Kingdom of Italy would not have been achieved without his fighting.’		1

Question	Answer	Marks
3(b)	Why was there support for slavery in the South?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'There was support for slavery in the South because it was needed for the South's economy. Cotton was crucial to the South (it was often said that 'cotton was king' in the South) and the cotton plantations used slave labour. It allowed the cotton industry in the South to rapidly expand. So, the South's economy fundamentally depended on slavery.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'Slaves were used on the cotton plantations.' 'Many people in the South believed black people were inferior to white people and so should be slaves.' 'Many in the South claimed slaves were well looked after and were benefiting from being slaves.' '25% of Southerners owned slaves and they regarded them as an important part of their wealth.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'There was support for slavery because they thought it was a good thing.'		1

3(c)	How important was leadership in the North’s victory in the Civil War? Explain your answer. Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how important’ As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 Explanation of both sides. A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8. Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I do not think it was leadership. It was a question of resources. The North was much stronger than the South and was bound to win in the end. There were over double the number of people in the North and many in the South were slaves who were not going to help the South’s struggle. The economy of the North was much stronger. It could produce more arms and stopped the South from importing arms by the naval blockade. As the war got longer and longer and turned into a war of attrition the South got weaker and weaker.’ OR ‘The leadership of Lincoln was crucial. He defined a clear and consistent policy for the North – to preserve the United States. He also made an effort to mobilise many different groups of society in support of the North, including black Americans. This led to the Union army growing to over 600 000 men. He also realised how important it was to keep the border states on his side. This is why he stopped General Fremont’s order in Missouri to free slaves. But later Lincoln realised that he needed to get the support of black Americans. He did this by the Emancipation Proclamation.’ OR ‘Leadership was crucial. The tactics of the North to use deep raids was effective because it damaged the morale of the South by tearing up the interior. Sherman’s march on Savannah was devastating. Making Grant the overall commander was also important because he then led a series of devastating campaigns such as the Overland Campaign in Virginia and finally defeated Lee. At the same time the South was making the mistake of fighting a conventional war when it did not have the number of troops to bear the large number of casualties.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

Question	Answer	Marks
3(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. 'Lincoln won the support of black Americans for the war effort.' 'Lincoln's leadership was important.' 'Lincoln gave the North clear aims for the war.' 'The South had greater resources in terms of men and arms.' 'The military strategy of the South was too aggressive.' 'A defensive campaign by the South would have exhausted the will of those in the North.' 'Lee's offensive strategy led to too many casualties for the South.' 'The South should have fought a guerrilla war rather than a conventional one.' 'Lee focused too much on Virginia and so lost the West.' 'The South had poor command.' 'Sherman's marches through Georgia weakened the South.' 'The will of the South was not strong enough and morale soon plummeted.' 'The introduction of black soldiers for the North was critical.' 'The South printed too much money which destroyed its economy and led to low morale.' 'Four states in the south remained loyal to the Union which caused problems for the South.' 'Grant's military leadership and victories over Lee such as at Richmond were important.' Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'Military leadership was important because this meant they won the battles.' Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	2–3 1 0

4(b)	Why did the Chinese not welcome European intervention in their country?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘This was because the British and Americans were selling opium to Chinese smugglers who then sold it in China. By the 1830s the amount being sold in China was enormous. It was addictive and was doing a lot of harm to the Chinese population. The Chinese government was also worried about the huge amounts of silver leaving the country to pay for the opium. When the Chinese government tried to stop the trade the British sent soldiers to force the Chinese to continue with the trade.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘This was because Britain was selling vast amounts of opium in China.’ ‘The British forced China to give them Hong Kong Island.’ ‘The British and the French forced China to give them favourable trading terms.’ ‘Western countries forced China to trade with them.’ ‘The British forced their way into China by force.’ ‘They did not like the activities of Christian missionaries in China.’ ‘Several western powers like Germany, France and Britain were all using force to take land and materials from China.’ ‘They did not like the way that Chinese culture was being damaged by European religions and ways of life.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘They did not welcome this because the Europeans interfered and told them what to do.’

This was because the grease was rumoured to contain beef and pork which were offensive to Hindus and Muslims respectively. The Indian soldiers had to bite the cartridges so that they could be used. This was offensive to the soldiers. They refused to use the cartridges because they would be going against their religions. The mutiny started in Meerut when some Indian soldiers refused to use the cartridges and were court martialled. The trouble spread from there.’ OR e.g. ‘The greased cartridges were not important. It was a war of independence, a national rising against British rule. The East India Company (EIC) was in all kinds of ways attacking the culture and way of life of Indians, and missionaries were attacking the religions of Indians. One example was the Doctrine of Lapse which allowed the EIC take over the land of Indian rulers who died without an heir. Many of the people in the rebellion wanted to restore the Mughals to power. This shows that it was a nationalist rebellion.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

'The grease on the cartridges contained pork which was offensive to Muslims.' 'The Indian soldiers had to bite the cartridge for the new Enfield rifles. This upset many soldiers because of the grease made from animal fat on the cartridge.' 'The Indian soldiers believed they would lose caste if they bit the greased cartridges.' 'The Indian soldiers thought the greased cartridges were part of the British attack of their religions.' 'They were not that important. More important was the work of missionaries trying to convert Indians to Christianity.' 'They were not as important as the fact that that soldiers were now expected to serve in places further away and lost their extra pay for serving abroad.' 'More important factors were poor pay and lack of promotion for Indian soldiers.' 'More important were the attempts in the Bengal Army to start recruiting from lower caste people. This was a threat to traditional social status.' 'Many Indian soldiers wanted to restore the Mughal dynasty under Bahadur Shah.' 'Some local rulers were angry by the talking over of states by the EIC.' 'Local rulers did not like the fact if they died without a male heir, their land went to the EIC.' 5(b)	Why did Clemenceau not get everything he wanted at the Paris Peace Conference?	6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Clemenceau did not get everything he wanted because Lloyd George and Wilson acted together against some of his demands. This was the case over the Rhineland which Clemenceau wanted as part of France or to be independent to help defend France against future threats from Germany. Lloyd George and Wilson did not want to weaken Germany too much and only agreed to the Allies occupying it for fifteen years and Germany never rearming the area. Both Lloyd George and Wilson were worried that if Germany was punished too much this would cause resentments in the future. This set them against Clemenceau's aim of making France safe from Germany in the future.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'The Big Three all had different objectives.' 'Clemenceau wanted huge reparations but Lloyd George did not want to cripple Germany.' 'The USA had not been invaded during the war and so Wilson and the Americans did not really understand Clemenceau's fear of Germany.' 'Clemenceau's demands were too extreme.' 'Britain did not want France to become too powerful.' 'Clemenceau had to compromise with Lloyd George and Wilson.' 'Britain and the USA rejected the Anglo-American Treaty of Guarantee.'		2–3

Germany argued that many countries were to blame for the war, especially Russia which mobilised its forces first. The war guilt clause gave the Allies the right to punish Germany harshly.’ OR e.g. ‘I agree with this. The German armed forces were reduced to an army of 100 000 and to 6 battleships and no submarines or aeroplanes. 9(b)	Why was the German U-boat campaign important?	6
Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The German U-boat campaign was important because over half of Britain's food had to be imported by sea. In 1915, German U-boats sank thousands of the merchant ships and Britain began to be short of food. When Germany restarted the U-boat campaign in 1917, food was so short in Britain that rationing had to be introduced in 1918. In the long run, Jutland achieved a lot for Britain.’ OR e.g. ‘I agree with this. The British fleet outnumbered the German fleet and planned to lure the German ships into a trap. It lost the war because of the entry of the USA into the war. Until then there was a stalemate. Both sides had lost enormous numbers of men but the losses of the Allies were replaced by hundreds of thousands of American troops, while the Germans were desperately short of soldiers. This is why the Germans resorted to the desperate last throw of the Ludendorff Offensive in 1918. Even this failed because the Germans did not have enough troops. At the same time, the arrival of American troops allowed the Allies to send their most experienced troops to areas where the fighting was most crucial.’ OR e.g. ‘I agree with this statement. By 1917 Germany was in a terrible state. This was partly because of the blockade of its coast by the British navy. This stopped essential supplies getting to the German people. By 1916 there were food shortages in Germany and by 1917 there was starvation and disease. Hundreds of thousands died from disease and lack of food. There was also looting and food riots. This was made worse by the failure of the potato crop in the winter of 1916–17 which meant people had to survive on turnips. All of this seriously weakened Germany and created war weariness. By 1918 there were riots all over Germany and the Kaiser had abdicated. All this led to Germany signing the armistice.’

Stresemann brought economic stability and confidence to the Republic by ending hyperinflation, introducing a permanent currency, the Reichmark, and by reducing government spending. Stresemann had worked closely with the Americans in securing loans under the Dawes Plan, which was invested in German industry. This helped to kick start the German economy and by 1928 German industry was producing more than before the war.’ OR e.g. ‘I agree with this. Stresemann did not really achieve anything that was long lasting. Germany’s recovery after 1923 was an illusion. The economic recovery depended on loans, and, if the loans were recalled, Germany would be in serious trouble again. As it was, agriculture never fully recovered, unemployment remained high and small businesses continued to struggle. When the USA’s economy went into recession, the Americans asked for their loans back. They always regarded women as important and essential for the Nazis being successful. They were determined to boost the birth rate throughout the Nazi period because, if Germany went to war, then more German men would be required to replace losses at the battlefield and work in the war-supporting industries. This idea stayed consistent throughout.’ OR e.g. ‘In peacetime, women were forced out of the professions and discouraged from being in the workplace. They were encouraged to focus on having children and looking after their families. They were given loans to get married and medals if they had a lot of children. After 1937, the Nazi regime performed a u-turn because of the increasing demands of German industry, especially those firms involved in rearmament. Labour could not be met by the pool of unemployed men, which was becoming exhausted. Women were persuaded back into work to support the war effort.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

13(b)	Why was the New Economic Policy important to Lenin?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'It was very important to Lenin because of the Kronstadt rising by sailors at the naval base. They were unhappy about Bolshevik policies, especially War Communism. This was very harsh and led to food rationing and to peasants being made to hand over food. The Bolsheviks were running a dictatorship with no freedoms for people. Lenin realised that he had to change his policies and introduced the NEP which allowed some private ownership which led to better distribution of food. The peasants and the workers started to support Lenin again. This is why the NEP was important to him, he could have lost the Civil War without it.'		4–5

Because of all this, I think black Americans suffered the most.’ OR e.g. ‘Although black Americans did suffer a lot from intolerance, I am not sure they suffered the most. Immigrants suffered very badly. They were blamed for many of the problems in the USA, especially immigrants from Eastern Europe. For example, they were blamed for bringing communist and anarchist ideas into the country. In the 1920s there were many strikes and there was great fear of communism. This led to the Red Scare and immigrants were one of the main targets of newspapers and politicians. The worst example was when two Italian anarchists were found guilty of murder. 19(b)	Why did the South African government establish an apartheid state in the 1950s?	6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'It did this because it believed that it was the only way for South Africa to move forward. People like Malan believed that the true South African nation was the Afrikaner nation and that Afrikaners were a chosen people and superior. They believed that other races should be kept separate in other parts of South Africa because different races could not live together peacefully.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'It believed that Afrikaners were superior to other races.' 'It believed that different races could not live together.' 'There was a fear from the government that Africans would 'swamp' the Afrikaners by sheer numbers if they lived together.' 'To protect the Afrikaners.'		2–3

19(c)	‘Repression by South African governments ensured that there was little opposition to apartheid between 1950 and 1966.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ 10 As Level 4 plus evaluation.
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I agree with this. The South African governments were very repressive at this time. The Suppression of Communism Act meant that people could be banned from meeting others and travelling around the country. Most of the ANC leadership were banned. The government also arrested lots of people and charged them with treason. The government action grew more severe after Sharpeville, with the ANC being banned. Government action did have some effect because many opposition leaders were in prison and the ANC had to operate from abroad and was driven to use violent methods. Within South Africa the ANC leaders like Mandela were in prison and the organisation was smashed in South Africa.’ OR e.g. ‘I disagree because there was still plenty of opposition. This started in 1952 with the Defiance Campaign against the apartheid laws. Thousands took part by ignoring apartheid laws such as ‘European Only’ signs. This was followed by the Freedom Charter which set out the aims of the anti-apartheid movement. These included equal rights for everyone and one vote per person. There were demonstrations by women against the pass law when it was announced that black women would have to carry passes. Finally, there was the demonstration at Sharpeville in 1960 against the pass law. The violent action by the government against this led to the ANC turning to violent methods so the repression did not get rid of opposition.’

	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The main reason they did this was to create an all-white South Africa. The idea was that a homeland would be set up for each ethnic group so that black South Africans would be divided between ten homelands. This would leave white South Africans as the largest racial group in South Africa.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'The Bantustans reinforced the separation of black and white.' 'This was because it would make an all-white South Africa.' 'To exclude black South Africans from white South Africa.' 'Citizens of the Bantustans were deprived of their South African citizenship.' 'The South African government no longer had to provide facilities for black people in mainly white areas.'		2–3

There was much opposition from outside South Africa. Many of the states around South Africa had majority black governments and provided bases for the MK, the armed wing of the ANC. This meant that the MK could train their guerrillas and launch attacks on South Africa. There were bases in Mozambique and Angola. There was also opposition from the rest of the world through UN sanctions which gradually isolated South Africa. For example, protesters in the UK disrupted the South African cricket tour in 1970.’ OR e.g. ‘I disagree with this. The UN sanctions were not effective because countries like the UK wanted to trade with South Africa. Also, Botha’s attacks on the MK bases did a lot of damage to them. At the same time, opposition inside South Africa was still very important. This can be seen from the demonstrations and riots in Soweto by school students. 	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘They have been reluctant because of actions and policies of the PLO. The PLO did not help the Palestinian refugees by its policies and actions which often upset Arab leaders. It had caused civil wars in both Jordan and Lebanon and when it supported Iraq in the war over Kuwait it upset Egypt, Syria and Saudi Arabia, all of whom supported the USA. Through these actions the PLO lost Arab support for the refugees.’		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘The PLO upset Arab countries by its actions in Jordan and Lebanon.’ ‘The PLO lost support of Arab states by supporting Saddam Hussein.’ ‘Syria expelled the PLO from Syrian-controlled parts of Lebanon in 1983.’ ‘Arab states have not backed up their pledges of financial support.’ ‘Arab states have seen the crisis in the Middle East as an opportunity to further their own national interests rather than helping the refugees.’ ‘Some countries like Egypt have been negotiating separately with Israel, thus ignoring the issue of the refugees.’		2–3

	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘I agree with this because the UN has done a lot to help the refugees. In 1948 when the refugee issue emerged the UN quickly provided tents, food and clothing. It also tried to get the refugees returned to their homes but was not helped by Israel or many Arab states. Its organisation UNRWA has supported refugees. One thing it has done is to help identify all Palestinian refugees outside Israel so that the issue of the refugee crisis is understood. It still feeds, houses and educates many refugees in the refugee camps. Its help has been humanitarian help, while the PLO has focused more on political help which has not been very successful.’ OR e.g. ‘The PLO has helped the refugees in an important way. It has kept the issue in the news and made sure that the plight of the refugees cannot be ignored. It has been successful in getting leading countries like the USA accept that there could be no lasting peace in the Middle East without the Palestinian issue being dealt with. The UN, on the other hand, has achieved little in terms of finding a political solution to the issue of the refugees. The General Council has passed resolutions about it but the Security Council has not been keen to act.’	4–6
