Paper 1

May/June 2020

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 60

Published

Students did not sit exam papers in the June 2020 series due to the Covid-19 global pandemic.

This mark scheme is published to support teachers and students and should be read together with the question paper. It shows the requirements of the exam. The answer column of the mark scheme shows the proposed basis on which Examiners would award marks for this exam. Where appropriate, this column also provides the most likely acceptable alternative responses expected from students. Examiners usually review the mark scheme after they have seen student responses and update the mark scheme if appropriate. In the June series, Examiners were unable to consider the acceptability of alternative responses, as there were no student responses to consider.

Mark schemes should usually be read together with the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers. However, because students did not sit exam papers, there is no Principal Examiner Report for Teachers for the June 2020 series.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the June 2020 series for most Cambridge IGCSE™ and Cambridge International A & AS Level components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 92 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Applying the Mark Scheme

- When marking a response the overall criteria to be considered should be – ‘How good is this response to this question?’
- The ‘Level Descriptor’ should be used to decide the Level into which the quality of the answer fits.
- Exhaustive lists of possible facts are not given in the mark scheme, as there is often a choice of factual knowledge that candidates may use.
- WHERE EXAMPLES OF RESPONSES ARE GIVEN, THESE ARE NOT PRESCRIPTIVE, BUT ARE INTENDED AS A GUIDE. It is not possible to cover every possible type of response within a levels of response mark scheme and examiners are expected to use their professional judgement at all times in ensuring that responses are placed in the correct levels and given an appropriate mark within that level. If you cannot resolve the issue please contact your team leader.
- Marking must be positive. Marks must not be deducted for inaccurate or irrelevant parts of answers. In itself, poor use of historical terminology, spelling, grammar or handwriting does not affect the mark. The overall quality of the answer to the question should be judged.
- If a candidate reaches a particular level s/he must be rewarded with a mark within that level. It is not necessary to work through the levels.
- The full range of marks should be used. Do not be afraid to award full marks or no marks. Failure to do this will seriously affect the distribution of marks. Be prepared to reward candidates who show any level of understanding. The mark scheme starts from basic acceptable response. Where a band of marks is indicated for a level these marks should be used with reference to the development of the answer within that level.

Assessment Objectives

- (a) recall, description
- (b) recall, explanation
- (c) recall, explanation and analysis

Question	Answer	Marks
1(a)	Describe what Garibaldi did in 1860 to help Italian unification.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘He landed in Sicily with the Thousand.’ ‘He won the Battle of Calatafimi.’ ‘Defeated the Neapolitan forces on Sicily.’ Took control of Sicily in the name of Victor Emmanuel.’ He conquered Palermo.’ He defeated the Neapolitan army at Volturno.’ He gave all his territorial gains to Piedmont.’ He proclaimed Victor Emmanuel as King of Italy.’ ‘He rode into Naples with Victor Emmanuel.’

Question	Answer	Marks
1(b)	Why were there uprisings in Italy in 1848–49?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘There were uprisings in Italy because of the hatred of Austrian rule in areas like the Kingdom of Lombardy-Venetia. Austrian rule was oppressive and the Austrians levied high taxes on the Italians. Many people wanted to be free of foreign rule and wanted Italy to be independent. Resentment against the Austrians led to a growth in nationalist feelings and the uprisings. This was why Austrian troops were forced out of Milan and then other parts of northern Italy.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘The writings and ideas of Mazzini.’ ‘The desire for liberal reforms in places like Sicily.’ ‘The desire to be independent of foreign rule.’ ‘The reforms in Rome stimulated demands for reform elsewhere.’ ‘Many peasants were living in great hardship.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘There were uprisings because people were unhappy with how things were.’
Level 0 No evidence submitted or response does not address the question	0

Question	Answer	Marks
1(c)	‘Mazzini contributed little to Italian unification.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8. Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Mazzini contributed very little and the revolts he led in the 1830s were easily crushed and failed. He then spent a lot of time exiled from Italy, still trying to stir up revolts, but they also failed. His time in charge of the Roman Republic was short and also ended in failure and exile. Finally, he failed to free Rome in 1862. Mazzini was not practical enough to plan revolts properly. He also did not understand that the Italian peasants just wanted their lives to be made easier and were not interested in ideas like unification or republicanism. Overall, he achieved very little. Unification was achieved by Cavour and Garibaldi, not Mazzini.’ OR e.g. ‘Mazzini made a massive contribution to Italian unification through his ideas and writings. These inspired others like Garibaldi to fight for unification. He spearheaded the revolutionary movement in Italy and his organisation of Young Italy set the example for fighting for revolution and unification. Mazzini set down the basic ideas about uniting Italy and this inspired others. He was also very popular outside Italy and won a lot of support in places like Britain for Italian unification.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

Question	Answer	Marks
1(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Mazzini’s attempts at uprisings all failed.’ ‘Mazzini put too much faith in the idea of a popular uprising to bring about Italian unification.’ ‘Unification was achieved by the armies and strength of Piedmont.’ Cavour and Garibaldi brought about unification not Mazzini.’ ‘He failed in Rome and lots of other places.’ ‘He contributed little because he was in exile for a lot of the time.’ ‘Mazzini drew up the ideas for Italian unification which inspired others.’ ‘He inspired Garibaldi’ ‘Young Italy was the first serious organisation working for unification.’ ‘He was very popular outside Italy and this won a lot of support for Italian unification.’	2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘Mazzini contributed little because it was others who really brought about unification.’	1

2(a)	Describe the events leading to the war in 1864 over Schleswig-Holstein.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘The King of Denmark, Frederick VII, died.’ ‘Denmark drew up a new constitution for Denmark/Schleswig.’ ‘Bismarck called for Holstein to be occupied.’ ‘In December 1863 Saxon and Hanoverian troops marched into Holstein.’ ‘In January 1864 Bismarck demanded the new constitution be abandoned.’ ‘Denmark refused to abandon the new constitution.’ ‘Prussian and Austrian troops invaded Schleswig in February.’

Question	Answer	Marks
2(b)	Why was the war with Austria in 1866 important for Bismarck?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'The war with Austria was important for Bismarck because Prussia won the war and this left the way open to a united Germany led by Prussia. The war left Prussia dominant in Germany with nothing standing in Bismarck's way to achieving unification. The first stage in this was made possible by the war – Bismarck forming the North German Confederation. This put Prussia in a strong position to fight a war with France with the support of other German states. Victory here led to the establishment of a united Germany in 1871 with King William of Prussia as German Emperor. All this was made possible by the war with Austria.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'Bismarck was able to change the balance of power in Germany in favour of Prussia.' 'The war was part of Bismarck's plan to exclude Austria from German affairs.' 'It led to the abolition of the German Confederation that was led by Austria.' 'It led to Bismarck forming the North German Confederation.' 'It was important to him because it was a triumph for his diplomacy.' 'It made Prussia the dominant power in Germany.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'It was important for Bismarck because it helped him.'		1

2(c)	Did the 1848 revolutions help or hinder the cause of German unification? Explain your answer. Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘did the 1848 revolutions help or hinder’ As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8. Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The 1848 revolutions helped the cause of German unification. They involved the German people in the politics of Germany and many more took an interest in politics and the aim of German unification. A groundswell of public opinion now favoured unification and this made Bismarck’s achievements in the future possible. The Frankfurt Parliament, by offering the German crown to Frederick William of Prussia showed the way forward – a united Germany led by Prussia and without Austria.’ OR ‘1848 did not help German unification because the revolutions were a dismal failure. Frederick William’s refusal off the Imperial crown shows that unification was no closer. Events in 1848–9 showed that the supporters of unification had no real power and the individual states reasserted themselves. The disbanding of the Erfurt Union and the reestablishment of the German Confederation under Austria’s leadership shows that nothing had been achieved.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

Question	Answer	Marks
2(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The new Prussian constitution of 1840 became the constitution of a unified Germany.’ ‘The revolutions helped unification by making it an important issue in Germany.’ ‘They did not help unification because Frederick William of Prussia turned down the offer of the German crown.’ ‘The Frankfurt Parliament was just a talking shop and disintegrated so German unification was brought no closer.’ ‘The reestablishment of the German Confederation shows that no gains towards unification had been made.’ ‘After 1848 and the Frankfurt Parliament the organisation of Germany without a German parliament was out of the question.’ Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘The revolutions made German unification more likely because they showed that it was a good idea.’	2–3

3(a)	Describe the terms of the Fugitive Slave Act of 1850.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘All escaped slaves when captured had to be returned to their masters.’ ‘Officials and citizens of free states had to obey the law.’ ‘Officials who did not arrest a runaway slave were fined.’ ‘Suspected runaway slaves were not given a jury trial and they could not testify on their own behalf.’ ‘Officials who captured a runaway slave were promoted.’ ‘Anyone who helped a runaway slave was imprisoned and fined.’

Question	Answer	Marks
3(b)	Why was the Freedmen’s Bureau important?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘The Bureau was important because it provided education for freed slaves after the Civil War. Before the war southern states had banned slaves from being given an education but freed slaves now needed to learn to read and write to help them to support themselves. The Bureau confiscated property from planters and used this to set up schools and by 1865 90 000 former slaves were being educated. The schools and colleges set up by the Bureau helped them adjust to their new lives and even after it was closed down they remained the main places for education of Black Americans in the South for many years. This shows the importance of the Bureau.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘It helped freed slaves in the South after the Civil War.’ ‘It was an important part of Reconstruction.’ ‘It provided education for freed slaves.’ ‘It helped freed slaves find family members after the war.’ ‘Bureau agents represented freed slaves in courts.’ ‘It provided medical provision for freed slaves.’ ‘It encouraged the rebuilding of plantations so freed slaves could work on them.’ ‘It helped freed slaves obtain clothing and food.’ ‘It helped freed slaves adjust to their new freedom.’
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge 1 e.g. ‘The Bureau was important for all the work it did.’

3(c)	‘The main reason why civil war broke out in 1861 was Northern abolitionism.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides. A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Northern abolitionism was the main cause. The North was becoming more reliant on industry and this meant that many Northerners could not understand the importance of slavery to the economy and way of life of the South which remained an agricultural economy relying on slave labour on the plantations. Many also simply thought that slavery was morally wrong. This led to a growing abolitionist movement in the North which upset the South, especially episodes such as John Brown’s attempt to start a slave rebellion at Harper’s Ferry. This, and other events like the rise of the Republican Party convinced many people in the South that the North was determined to abolish slavery and so southern states began to secede from the Union.’ OR ‘More important than the issue of Northern abolitionism was the issue of states’ rights. There was much disagreement over which powers belonged to the states and which belonged to the Federal Government. Southern states felt that the Federal government was taking away their rights and powers. This was especially important in the expansion to the West where the North wanted new states and territories to be slave free. The election of Lincoln as president made it even worse. The South saw him as a threat to their rights. The war actually started when southern states like South Carolina began to leave the Union. Lincoln sent troops to defend the Union and said that they did not have the right to leave. So this shows the beginning of the war was directly about the right of the states.’	4–6

Question	Answer	Marks
3(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘The war was caused by the different cultures and ways of life of North and South.’ ‘The war was caused by the South’s determination to keep slavery.’ ‘Many people in the North felt that slavery was wrong.’ ‘Actions of abolitionists like John Brown caused the Civil War.’ ‘States’ rights were a more important cause of the war.’ ‘The war was caused by the election of Lincoln as president.’ ‘The war broke out in 1861 because the Confederate forces attacked Fort Sumter.’ ‘It was Lincoln’s determination to defend the Union that caused the war.’	2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. ‘The war started because North and South could not get on with each other.’

4(a)	Describe the rule of Leopold II in the Congo.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘Leopold’s rule was cruel towards the local inhabitants.’ ‘Leopold ruled the Congo with personal and total control.’ ‘He tried to make as much profit as possible out of ivory and rubber.’ ‘Private companies were given concessions to extract the rubber.’ ‘The private companies were allowed to treat the local inhabitants as they liked.’ ‘The local inhabitants were forced into working, extracting rubber.’ ‘If the local inhabitants refused to work they were whipped and mutilated.’ ‘Leopold did nothing to combat disease and famine among the local inhabitants.’

Question	Answer	Marks
4(b)	Why did Britain use a policy of indirect rule in Nigeria?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Britain was faced with the problem of how to rule colonies like Nigeria without using too many men and where there were lots of different tribal structures and traditions. They decided to use the existing structures and rulers to rule the colony. The local chiefs were the best people to achieve the obedience of the locals, so not many British officials had to be used. The local people would have resented rule of British officials, but did not mind rulers from their own peoples.'		4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'The local chiefs had the respect of the local people.' 'It meant that existing and traditional structures and traditions could be kept.' 'It meant that not many British officials or soldiers were needed.' 'Indirect rule was a much cheaper system than direct rule.' 'The local elders tended to be conservative and cautious and encouraged the local people to be obedient to the British.'		2–3
	Level 1 General answer lacking specific contextual knowledge e.g. 'Britain used this policy because it was the one that worked best.'		1

4(c)	How far was the Indian Mutiny a nationalist uprising? Explain your answer. Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘how far’ As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8. Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Yes, it was a nationalist revolt. The rebels were acting against the destruction of their national culture and their values. Their nationalism can be seen by the fact that they demanded to be ruled by the Mughal dynasty which was symbol of national unity. The sepoys did not seek to revive small kingdoms in their regions but fought for country-wide rule of the Mughals and for the British to be driven out of India. This shows that it was a nationalist revolt.’ OR e.g. ‘No it was not a nationalist revolt. Religion was a much more important cause. Rumours about pig and cow fat (forbidden in the Muslim and Hindu religions) being used as lubricant on the soldiers’ cartridges was an important factor. This can be seen by the fact that many of the leaders of the uprising were religious leaders such as Ahmedullah Shah who called for a Jihad against the British. Many of the rebels thought that the British were trying to convert them to Christianity. It is also significant that the Sunni Muslims did not join the rebellion because they thought that it was a Shiite rebellion. All these factors point to the rebellion being about religion.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

Question	Answer	Marks
4(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. 'It was an uprising about the British destroying their traditions and ways of life.' 'It was caused by the British deposing local rulers such as in the kingdom of Awadh.' 'It was a nationalist revolt because the rebels proclaimed Bahadur Shah Zafar as Emperor of the whole of India.' 'It was a widespread revolt in many areas of India showing that it was more than a revolt in the army or from one region.' 'Sikhs did not join the rebellion because they saw it as a Muslim rebellion.' 'It cannot have been a nationalist rebellion because India did not exist at the time.' 'Indian soldiers from the Madras Army helped the British put down the rebellion.' 'The revolt was limited to north and central India.' 'It was about the use of pig and cow fat on soldiers' cartridges which was forbidden by their religions.'	2–3

Question	Answer	Marks
5(b)	Why did Lloyd George favour a moderate peace settlement with Germany?	6
Level 4 Explains TWO reasons	6
Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Lloyd George wanted a moderate peace settlement because he did not want Germany made too weak, especially economically. This was because Germany was an important trade partner of Britain's and he wanted Germany strong enough to be able to trade with Britain. He wanted a Germany that could still buy plenty of British goods. This would be good for Britain and allow it to recover after the war.'	4–5
Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'He did not want Germany to seek revenge in the future.' 'He thought a moderate settlement would help to keep peace in the future.' 'He wanted Germany to be able to trade with Britain in the future.' 'He wanted Germany to be strong enough to protect Europe from Soviet communism.'	2–3

5(c)	Which was punished more harshly in the peace treaties, Austria or Germany? Explain your answer. Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘which was punished more harshly’ As Level 4 plus evaluation. Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. Germany had to accept that it was guilty for starting the war and its armed forces were strictly limited. It lost 16% of its coalfields and areas where a lot of its iron and steel industry was based. This, the reparation payments, made it very difficult for Germany to recover economically. The harshness of the punishment can be seen by the outraged reaction in Germany where people were starving. Austria did not suffer so much from the peace treaties because its empire had already disintegrated. The Treaty of St Germain tried to sort out the jumble of territories rather than punish Austria.’ OR e.g. ‘Austria was definitely punished more harshly as it was weakened both politically and economically. It was separated from Hungary, its empire was formally dissolved and this meant that it was no longer a major European power. It became a minor European nation because of its vast reduction in population, territory and resources. Despite all the terms against Germany in the Treaty of Versailles it remained a major power. Austria also lost much of its industry in the lands that were used to form the new country of Czechoslovakia. This made Austria economically weak and it had terrible economic problems after the war.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

Question	Answer	Marks
5(c)	Level 2 Identifies AND/OR describes One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Austria lost much of its industry making it economically weak.’ ‘Germany remained a major power, but Austria did not.’ ‘Austria was not allowed to enter into a union with Germany, thus making it economic recovery more difficult.’ ‘Austria was separated from Hungary, this meant Austria was no longer a leading power.’ ‘Defeat in the war did the main damage to Austria, not the Treaty of St Germain.’ ‘Both Germany and Austria were weakened economically and had economic problems after the war.’ ‘Both countries had to accept responsibility for starting the war.’ ‘Germany lost all of its empire.’ ‘Both countries had to pay reparations.’ ‘Both had their armed forces greatly reduced.’ ‘Austria had already lost its empire.’	2–3

6(a)	Describe the takeover of Czechoslovakia in 1938–39.	4
	Level 1 One mark for each relevant point; additional mark for supporting detail 1–4 e.g. ‘Nazis in the Sudetenland stirred up trouble among Sudetenland Germans.’ ‘The Sudetenland Nazi Party began to demand autonomy from Czechoslovakia.’ ‘German troops moved to the border with Czechoslovakia.’ ‘In May 1938 Hitler said he would fight Czechoslovakia if necessary.’ ‘At a meeting with Chamberlain in September, Hitler demanded only parts of the Sudetenland.’ ‘The Munich Pact was signed on 30 September 1938, giving Hitler all of the Sudetenland.’ ‘At a second meeting Hitler increased his demands to all of the Sudetenland.’ ‘In March 1939 German troops invaded the rest of Czechoslovakia.’

Question	Answer	Marks
6(b)	Why did Britain react differently to Germany's aggression towards Czechoslovakia and towards Poland?	6
Level 4 Explains TWO reasons	6
Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Chamberlain and other British politicians felt that Germany had a right to the Sudetenland as there were many Germans living there. He also thought that many of them wanted to be part of Germany. After agreeing to Hitler having the Sudetenland, there was little that could be done when Germany invaded the rest of the country. This was a completely different situation to Poland which did not have such a large German population.'	4–5
Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'Because the Sudetenland was ethnically German.' 'Chamberlain thought that letting Hitler have Czechoslovakia would appease him and he would have no other demands.' 'Britain had promised to defend Poland's independence.' 'Germany invading Poland was one step too far.'	2–3

Hitler wanted to take over Poland and he felt that Britain and France would do little about it. But he was worried about Russia. He felt that he could not move against Poland until he knew that Russia would not intervene. The Pact with Russia meant that Russia would not attack and in a secret part of the agreement even divided Poland up between the two powers. This made it safe for Hitler to invade Poland. This is shown the by the fact that the Pact was signed on 24 August and Hitler invaded Poland just a week later.' OR e.g. 'Hitler decided to invade Poland long before the Nazi-Soviet Pact. It was one of his main aims in his foreign policy from the beginning and was stated in Mein Kampf. He wanted to give Germany living space in the east and Poland was one of the areas he targeted. He believed that Germany needed living space for its survival and planned to deport the Poles to places like Siberia. For example, when there were demonstrations in East Germany he made it clear that he would not send Soviet tanks to restore order. He could have stopped the demonstrations then but when he failed to do so East Germans were able to march to the Berlin Wall and destroy it. This then encouraged demonstrations in other Eastern European countries like Czechoslovakia and Hungary which led to the collapse of Soviet control.’ OR e.g. ‘Problems in Eastern Europe had got so bad that use of the military would not have saved Soviet control. This forced the Germans to retreat, Paris was saved, and the Schlieffen Plan had failed.' OR e.g. 'I think that the first battle of Ypres was more important. 	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. 'One way the Nazis were never in complete control of Germany was young people. Although the Nazis put a lot of effort into winning young people over they never succeeded with all of them. This can be seen through groups like the Edelweiss Pirates, White Rose and the Swing movement. These were groups of young people who opposed the Nazis. They listened to American music and jazz which the Americans banned. The Edelweiss Pirates attacked groups of the Hitler Youth and during the war helped army deserters and escaped prisoners while White Rose encouraged resistance to the Nazis. These groups make clear that the Nazis were not in complete control.' OR e.g. 'The Nazis stayed in complete control by creating a police state in Germany. The state controlled everything that people did. The SS destroyed opposition to Hitler while the Gestapo had informers everywhere spying on and reporting their neighbours. The slightest criticism of the Nazis could land people in trouble. Even children were used to spy on their parents. Anyone not supporting the Nazis was sent to a concentration camp where they were likely to die. This meant that people were afraid to oppose the Nazi regime, allowing the Nazis to control Germany.'	4–6

	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘This was an important reason for the Depression. There was much poverty in America and many people (probably about 50% of the population) could barely afford to buy the bare necessities of life. They certainly could not afford to buy the consumer goods that were being produced in enormous numbers. Nor could America sell its good abroad. This was because other countries could not afford them because they were paying America back for war loans in the First World War. All this led to factories having to cut production, lower wages and sack workers. This meant that they could afford to buy even fewer goods, making the situation worse.’ OR e.g. ‘I think the Depression was caused by speculating on the stock market. Wall Street had been doing very well for years and more and more people bought shares, even when they could not afford to. While at Yen-an they won over the Chinese peasants by living simply and by re-distributing land to the peasants and providing them with health care and education. This made a big contrast with the corruption and brutality of the Nationalists. 19(c)	'The Defiance Campaign of 1952 was the most important example of opposition to apartheid before 1966.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of 'how far' As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. 'The Defiance Campaign of 1952 was particularly important because it showed the new methods of opposition to apartheid, using actions, and not just words. The Campaign consisted of huge illegal marches and demonstrations. In many major cities, protestors such as Mandela and Sisulu defied apartheid laws. For example, they used 'European Only' areas. The Campaign spread across Africa and thousands were arrested. Although the Campaign did not overturn the apartheid laws, it was important because it brought the issue to international attention and the UN set up a Commission to investigate the situation.' OR e.g. 'I think the Sharpeville Massacre of 1960 was more important. People were gathering in Sharpeville to protest against the Pass Laws. They were ordered to go home but besieged the police station. Fighting broke out and then the police started to shoot the demonstrators. Over 50 were killed and many more wounded. This was important because there was condemnation from around the world. The UN called for sanctions against South Africa. Commonwealth countries criticised South Africa so much that it left the organisation. Therefore, Sharpeville was key because it started international actions against South Africa.'	4–6

20(b)	Why were the Bantustans (Homelands) important?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons		6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘The Bantustans were important because when they were introduced by Verwoerd in 1959, they led to 3.5 million people being relocated. These were forced removals, the people had no choice and this completely disrupted their lives with them being taken from areas where they had lived for years to areas miles away. Here they often lived in poverty in overcrowded conditions.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘They were important because they uprooted people from their homes.’ ‘They gave the South African government the chance to claim that they were giving black South Africans a chance to run their own affairs.’ ‘They took black labour away from areas where it was needed.’ ‘They led to black South Africans losing their citizenship.’

20(c)	How far did the nature of the opposition to apartheid change in the period 1966 to 1980? It attacked white values, especially what it saw as the condescending values of white liberal opinion. It believed that black people should have the confidence to change things themselves and not depend on white people. Steve Biko was one of its leaders. He argued that black people should be aware of their own identity. It was very much a grass roots movement and rejected the traditional leaders who, it said, were far way from the people. It influenced many young people and led to the Soweto riots, where young black people protested against an announcement by the government that some subjects in schools would only be taught in Afrikaans. A boy of 13 was shot by the authorities and the government was condemned around the world.’ OR e.g. ‘In many ways the opposition did not change much, as opposition from students continued throughout this period. The South African Students Movement led opposition to school books being written in Afrikaans for black students, and members refused to attend school. There was also the South African Students’ Organisation, led by Steve Biko, which was part of the Black Consciousness movement. Education was still a key issue, and opposition from students in this period culminated in the protests at Soweto.’	10 10 7–9 4–6

21(c)	'Israel survived in the period 1956 to 1973 because Arab states often failed to act together.' How far do you agree with this statement? In the Six Day War they acted together. Jordan and Egypt had signed a defence pact and after the war Arab leaders met and agreed that there should not be any recognition of Israel or any negotiations with it. In the Yom Kippur War Syria and Egypt acted together in a surprise attack on Israel, and other Arab states supported them when Arab members of OPEC started an embargo against countries supporting Israel. This shows that there has been a lot of joint action between Arab states.' OR e.g. 'No, I think that Israel has survived mainly because it has had the support of the USA. Successive Presidents such as Eisenhower and Johnson provided US aid through military loans, and after the Six Day War the US sold Phantom fighters to Israel. Since that time, the US has ensured that Israel was always militarily stronger than its Arab neighbours. In the Yom Kippur War, the US sent arms and supplies that were crucial. This help from the USA has enabled Israel to survive through military superiority.'	10 10 7–9 4–6

22(b)	Why have divisions between Palestinian groups been important in hindering attempts to reach a negotiated peace?	6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason 4–5 (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘The Palestinian movement has been split between Fatah and Hamas. They have ideological differences but are also divided geographically, one stronger in the West Bank and the other in Gaza. They agree on very little and find it difficult to act together. This means that peace is difficult because it has been impossible to get them to agree on anything. One example of this is that Hama has preferred armed resistance while Fatah has wanted to use diplomacy. If there is to be peace, then a unified Palestinian movement is needed.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons 2–3 (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. ‘Hamas and Fatah have different aims and are rivals for Palestinian support.’ ‘They differ over their methods – force and diplomacy.’ ‘There has been violence between them.’ ‘Fatah has been more likely to reach agreements with Israel.’

22(c)	Which has done more in attempting to bring about peace in the Middle East, the United Nations or the USA? Explain your answer.	10
	Level 5 Explains with evaluation of ‘which has done more’ As Level 4 plus evaluation.	10
	Level 4 Explanation of both sides A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other.) This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.	7–9
	Level 3 One sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The USA has made several attempts at achieving peace in the Middle East. For example in 1979 at Camp David in the USA a peace treaty was signed between Israel and Egypt ending war between the two countries. This was organised by President Carter. Israel agreed to withdraw from Sinai and agreed to a self-governing authority for the Palestinians. There have been other attempts by the US to help peace. For example, the Camp David Summit of 2000 with Clinton and the Madrid Conference of 1991 that the US helped organise. All of these show that the USA has made many attempts to achieve peace.’ OR e.g. ‘The UN has helped bring about peace in the Middle East, and UN activity was encouraged by the USA and the USSR between 1956 and 1973. For example, in 1967 its Resolution 242 was the basis for peace after the Six Day War and led to peace treaties between Israel and Egypt and later Jordan. Additionally, the UN has often worked in a peace-keeping capacity, including during the 1982 Israeli invasion of Lebanon. In 2003 the UN was involved in the road map for peace. Whilst it can be said that the UN has played a less significant role since the end of the Cold War, it has still attempted to help the situation throughout the conflict.’	4–6
