Answer ONE question from this section on your chosen drama text.

Begin your answer on page 7.

The Rover* – Aphra Behn

EITHER

- 1 'Family relationships – good and bad – are central to the development of the play.'

In the light of this statement, explore the dramatic function of the family relationships Behn presents in The Rover.

In your answer, you must consider relevant contextual factors.

(Total for Question 1 = 25 marks)

OR

- 2 'The remote setting and the carnival mood cannot conceal the fact that Behn is dealing with issues the audience in England in the 1670s could relate to.'

In the light of this statement, how does Behn explore, in The Rover, issues that were of concern at the time it was first performed?

In your answer, you must consider relevant contextual factors.
