General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Questions 21-25

Question Number	Answer	Mark
If the candidate gives more than one answer and the correct answer is present, mark it INCORRECT .
21	The only correct answer is B. A is not correct as the text states that Sarah has already started decluttering. C is not correct because the text states that Sarah has been on a zero-waste journey for five years, not ten. D is not correct because it states in the text that Sarah views decluttering as being essential to her.	1 (AO1c)
22	The only correct answer is B. A is not correct because the text gives examples of other places that are better for some types of unwanted goods. C is not correct as the text states that donating goods to charity shops immediately after a New Year is not a good idea. D is not correct because charity shops do not recommend this; it is something that Sarah does before taking goods to charity shops.	1 (AO1c)
23	The only correct answer is A. B is not correct because the text is clear that the whole point of decluttering is to remove unnecessary items from the home and not replace them. C is not correct because the text does not state that people should only buy what they can afford. D is not correct because the text does not state that all things in the home should be functional. Attractive items are also acceptable.	1 (AO1c)

24	The only correct answer is C. A is not correct because, although this is mentioned in the text, it is not the greatest benefit. B is not correct because, although this is mentioned in the text, it is not the greatest benefit. D is not correct because, although this is mentioned in the text, it is not the greatest benefit.	1 (AO1c)
25	The only correct answer is A. B is not correct as, even though this is mentioned in the text, it is not what Sarah has found most difficult about decluttering. C is not correct because, even though this is mentioned in the text, it is not what Sarah has found most difficult about decluttering. D is not correct as Sarah has learnt to appreciate things but does not feel as though she has to buy them.	1 (AO1c)
