General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Questions 21-25

Question Number	Answer	Mark
If the candidate gives more than one answer and the correct answer is present, mark it INCORRECT .
21	The only correct answer is C. A is not correct as the text compares the productivity of British workers and European workers, but does not state they are in competition with each other. B is not correct as the text clearly states that despite working a five-day week, British workers are not as productive as they could be. D is not correct as the text states many people are working overtime and not being paid for it.	1 (AO1c)
22	The only correct answer is D. A is not correct as the text states lunchtimes have been reduced to 45 minutes. B is not correct as the text clearly states that shift patterns are not part of the shorter working week. C is not correct as the text states that workers are paid for a five-day week even though they work a four-day week.	1 (AO1c)
23	The only correct answer is A. B is not correct because the text states the company wants to invest in the employees, but does not say anything about paying them a productivity bonus. C is not correct as the text states that in a lot of companies the staff have drinks in the last hour; however this does not happen at Administrate. D is not correct as the text states that despite workers having a four-day week, the office is open for five days.	1 (AO1c)

24	The only correct answer is C. A is not correct because the text states a shorter working week should be guaranteed for all workers. B is not correct because the text states the next stage should not be about generating more goods. D is not correct because the text talks about the redistribution of time and workload, not creating new jobs.	1 (AO1c)
25	The only correct answer is B. A is not correct because the text states that unions negotiated for a five-day week in the past. C is not correct because the text focuses on conditions in factories as a reason to move to a five-day week; however, nowadays the focus is on a change in how business in general is conducted. D is not correct because the text states business is different today, but not that businesses are more competitive.	1 (AO1c)
