General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Question Number	Answer	Mark
If the candidate gives more than one answer and the correct answer is present, mark it INCORRECT .
21	The only correct answer is C.  A is not correct as nowhere in the text does it state that Tom would like to grow his business.  B is not correct as the text clearly states that he has 17 branches in Britain.  D is not correct as the text states that he has a number of high-profile clients, but not that he works mainly for famous people.	1 (AO1c)
22	The only correct answer is B.  A is not correct as the text states that everyone used to talk about taking risks but nobody, apart from him, did.  C is not correct as the text states that the way in which he set the business up was the 'maddest thing' he had ever done, never to be repeated.  D is not correct as the text states he only knew how to design and make kitchens. He lacked knowledge in other areas.	1 (AO1c)
23	The only correct answer is D.  A is not correct as the company designs unique kitchens for individuals.  B is not correct as this is not mentioned in the text.  C is not correct as the company produces kitchens that are 'both functional and uncomplicated'.	1 (AO1c)

24	The only correct answer is A. B is not correct because the text states he grew up on a family-run farm, implying that his parents were responsible for running it. C is not correct as the text states that he grew up in a little village. D is not correct as the text does not mention him taking a break, only that he moved to a small kitchen company after his first job.	1 (AO1c)
25	The only correct answer is B. A is not correct because the text states that Tom has just been to the launch of a new range of smart appliances, so they are beyond the design stage. C is not correct because the text does not state that people will struggle to accept the appliances, only that they will become more common over the next decade. D is not correct because the text talks about the bread oven having a mobile app but makes no reference to this being the case for all smart appliances.	1 (AO1c)
