General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Section A Q1

Question number	Answer	Mark	AO
1 (a)	All questions in Section A are based on Key Question 5: Can I make a difference? Identification of idea (1) Justification of idea: up to 3 further marks Example response: I suggested that we should look for secondary data before we finally decided on our community action. (1) The reason we did this was because we wanted to compare our findings with those that already existed (1). I also suggested that we needed to discuss which sources would be more useful than others (1) and which sources would give us the most reliable information (1). Any other relevant example/explanation will be rewarded.	(4)	2

Question number	Answer	Mark	AO
1 (b)	Identification of idea (1) Explanation of idea: up to 3 further marks Example response: I started by looking at information about our local area (1). I found that the local authority [e.g. local council] produced a lot of useful data (1). Once I had this information I was then able to look for information that related to other countries and this was readily available online. (1) What became clear was that other places collect data in different ways to my own country (1). Any other relevant example/explanation will be rewarded.	(4)	2

Question number	Answer	Mark	AO
1(c)	Identification of finding (1) Explanation of finding: up to 2 further marks Explanation of finding must be a development of the stated fact (as opposed to giving viewpoints) to access further marks for explanation. Example response: I discovered that there were no reliable statistics on the number of illegal immigrants in my country (1) When I asked my Course Tutor why this was the case, she suggested that illegal immigrants would not be easy to find (1) and those that were found would be reluctant to take part in any research. (1) Any other relevant example/explanation will be rewarded.	(3)	2

Question number	Answer	Mark	AO
1(d)	Identification of reason (1) Explanation of reason: up to 2 further marks Example response: Illegal immigrants are often exploited. (1) Because it is difficult to find them it is difficult to give them any protection. (1) As a result many experience very low wages and very poor housing and I feel that something should be done about this situation. (1) Any other relevant example/explanation will be rewarded.	(3)	2
