2. Write the text for a poster to be put in every classroom of your school warning students about the dangers of staying too long in the sun. In your poster, you:
- describe the consequences of sunburn
 - give advice on how to avoid getting sunburnt.

SECTION B

Answer only one of the following three questions. Write at least 120 words.

- 3. Next month your country celebrates a national holiday. You write an article for the school newspaper to explain the reason for the celebration and to describe what happens on that day.

- 4. The subject of your school debate is: The climate is becoming warmer because of man. You give a speech to defend this opinion. Give at least two examples of man’s actions which affect the environment. Write the text of your speech.

- 5. Your English teacher has asked you to write a text for new students about the English course. You explain the content of the course, what you have enjoyed and why learning English is useful. Your text will be posted on the school web-page.
