Complete one of the following tasks in at least 400 words.

- 1. A local youth magazine has just announced a short story competition for which entries must begin with the following words: "It happened just after I finished my IB exam ...". Write your short story.
- 2. Your principal is doing research on enjoyable events and activities for students and has asked you to write a report on an event or activity that you participated in and really enjoyed. Describe the event or activity and say why you liked it and how you benefited from it.
- 3. Villains or the bad characters in a book often become more popular than the heroes. Identify a villain in a book you have read. Write a review of this character for your school's literary magazine and state why he/she is popular. Remember to mention the name of the book and the author.
- 4. One of your best friends has started to engage in behaviour that you find unacceptable. Write an e-mail to him/her, describing the behaviour and offering advice on what your friend should do.
- 5. You are participating in a class debate on the motion: "Students should be expelled from school if they are caught cheating or plagiarizing". Write the text of your speech, either agreeing or disagreeing with this motion.
- 6. There have been numerous road accidents involving students on bicycles in your town recently. Write a pamphlet to be distributed at your school giving advice on how to cycle more safely in order to prevent these accidents.
