Answer one essay question only. You must base your answer on at least two of the part 3 works you have studied. Answers which are not based on a discussion of at least two part 3 works will not score high marks. Your answer should address the ways in which language and context contribute to your reading of each work.

1. How and why might at least two of the works you have studied be considered inspirational?
 2. How do the writers of at least two of the works you have studied convey a sense of place to their readers and to what purpose?
 3. To what extent do at least two of the works you have studied show that an individual is in control of his or her own destiny?
 4. How can examining a literary work from different perspectives enrich our understanding of both the work and the techniques used by the writer? Base your answer on at least two of the works you have studied.
 5. Analyse the role non-human elements play in at least two of the works you have studied.
 6. Some say ignorance is bliss. How is “not knowing” presented in at least two of the works you have studied and to what effect?
