Instructions to candidates

- Do not turn over this examination paper until instructed to do so.
- Answer one question.
- The maximum mark for this examination paper is [20 marks].

Answer one question. The answer must refer to both theoretical perspectives and theory/schools of thought in anthropology and their application to specific and clearly identified ethnographic illustrations. Each question is worth [20 marks].

1. Examine the relation between one school of thought and one of the following theoretical perspectives in the work of one anthropologist:
    - a structure-centred perspective
    - a diachronic perspective
    - a particularist perspective.

  2. Discuss the use of one of the following theoretical perspectives in relation to the study of one contemporary social issue:
    - a materialist perspective
    - a conflict-centred perspective
    - an agency-centred perspective.

  3. Compare and contrast two schools of thought in relation to either a universalistic perspective or an idealist perspective.

  4. Discuss the strengths and limitations of taking a synchronic approach to ethnography.

  5. To what extent does a cohesion-centred perspective contribute to an understanding of the social and cultural world?
